

Chess Classes

Class for Beginners

There will be two free classes at Franklin Public Library from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on July 12th and July 19th. The classes are for students in 4th grade and above. Students will be given short lessons focused for beginners and time to play and practice their new skills. Students can attend either class or both. The Franklin Library is located at 9151 West Loomis Road, 53132. Online pre-registration helpful but not required.

Class for Teachers, Club Leaders and Parents

A chess class for teachers and club leaders will begin August 24^t, the class will meet for 8 weeks on Tuesdays from 4:30 to 6:00. The class will meet at WSCF Chess Center at 2803 N. Teutonia. The intent of the class is to teach chess basics to beginning adult players who want to lead a club or teach chess in their classrooms. Participants will learn how to implement WSCF's certificate program, how to lead a successful club, how to implement a club chess ladder, prepare students for chess tournaments and learn the latest chess educational principles used in WSCF Summer chess camps. Fee is $75 for advance registration, and $90 onsite registration. Space is limited. Grants are available. Inquire by email to bob@wisconsinscholasticchess.org
